

Martin Turmine

*Chief Executive Officer
Old Kempton Distillery*

OLD
KEMPTON
DISTILLERY
TASMANIA

The Distiller Experience

About Me

I was born in Launceston and moved to Hobart many years ago.

I first met industry stalwarts Bill Lark, Patrick Maguire and Mark Littler while facilitating trade activities for the distilling industry in 2007.

I have a Graduate Certificate of Management, a Diploma of Export Management and graduate of Australian Institute of Company Directors course.

Contact Details

☎ 0409559670

✉ martin@oldkemptondistillery.com.au

Key Skills

- Management
- Compliance - financial, staff, workplace safety, distillery/bond stores
- Communication
- Marketing
- Stakeholder management
- Governance

At Old Kempton

Martin has been the CEO at Old Kempton Distillery since late 2018.

He is responsible for managing all aspects of this small business across manufacturing, hospitality and tourism.

Past Experience

Martin has extensive experience as a trade adviser, managing market development activities, including buyer visits and trade promotions across Australia and overseas, and providing marketing/exporting advice.

Martin has worked in brand development, communications, the facilitation of promotional events, the delivery of marketing and business advice, financial management, managing and building relationships with stakeholders and managing staff.